

Pronunciation Matters

A one-day pronunciation event organised by IATEFL
Pronunciation Special Interest Group (PronSIG)

Plenary speakers:

Francis Nolan, Professor of Phonetics, University of Cambridge

Jonathan Marks, author and teacher-trainer

Venue: Bell Language School, Cambridge

Saturday June 17th 2017, 10.00 – 17.00

Call for Papers

Pronunciation Matters is a one-day pronunciation event aimed to reach out to teachers working in a variety of contexts. We welcome sessions on any aspect of pronunciation with relevance to the classroom. This broad remit covers traditional approaches as well as innovations in the field, including technology.

The format for sessions is either a 45-minute talk or workshop. Sessions can be delivered individually or by teams.

Requirements for proposals are given below.

Workshop / talk (45 minutes)

Title: maximum 12 words

Abstract: 50 – 60 words

Summary: up to 250 words

Biodata: up to 50 words

Proposals should be made through PronSIG@iatefl.org. The deadline is 31.03.17 and you will be notified whether your proposal has been accepted by 15.04.17.

Please note that in our commitment to keep registration fees as low as possible we are unable to provide expenses to presenters and they should register at the appropriate rates through the IATEFL secure website https://secure.iatefl.org/events/step1.php?event\_id=115

Informal enquiries about proposals and the event itself can be addressed to Wayne Rimmer PronSIG@iatefl.org

We look forward to receiving your proposal for what promises to be a very exciting event.
Event organiser: Wayne Rimmer (PronSIG).