

IATEFL Web Conference 24-25 November 2017

Webinars on a wide range of EFL topics presented by our Special Interest Groups.
Open to all, recordings available to IATEFL members only.

Website: conference.iatefl.org/webconference • Social media: #iatefl #webcon17

Day 1 – Friday 24th November

Times are UK which at the point of the conference will be the same as GMT

15.00 - 15.15: Welcome and opening address - Margit Szesztay

15.15 – 15.45: The IATEFL Sigs – George Pickering

16.00 – 17.00 Research SIG – Talk - Donald Freeman. Design-Based Research: What is it? How does it work?

17.15 – 18.15 MaWsig – Panel Discussion - Ways into Materials Writing

18.30 – 19.45 LTSIG – Forum – A compendium of online tools

20.00 – 21.00 TDSIG Talk - Adam Simpson. What does it mean to be an exemplary language teacher in the 21st Century?

21.00 Close of day One

Day 2 –Saturday 25th November

10.00 – 10.15 Welcome to day – Shaun Wilden

10.15 – 11.45 YLT SIG – 2 x 30 Talks

Carol Read - Values education for children: issues, challenges and solutions

Bruno Andrade - Elvis is not dead: dealing with ethics and fake news in the lower secondary classroom

12.00 – 13.00 Learner Autonomy – Panel - Developing learner autonomy in practice

13.15 – 14.15 GISIG – Talk - Margarita Kosior. Teaching for Social Justice: From Social Context to Teaching Content:

14.30 – 15.30 LAMSIG – Talk - Ania Kolbuszewska. Barricades and round tables: moving away from conflict

15.45 – 16.45 TEA – Talk - Judith Mader. Teaching and testing - much the same actually?

17.00 – 18.00 Pron SIG – Talk - Piers Messum. Current thinking on how pronunciation is best taught

18.00 Close of conference