

IATEFL PronSIG ONE DAY EVENT

The road to pron-tegration: tips, tricks and techniques to expand your pronunciation practice

Oct 26th 2019, University of Strathclyde

9.00 -9.25 Registration Room 514, Graham Hills Building, 50 Richmond Street
9.30 -10.20 Opening Plenary: Robin Walker Room 514
10.30 -11.00 Concurrent presentations	Session 1A Marianne Jordan How I overcame my fear of the IPA. Room 513	Session 1B Alison McGregor The terminology of English intonation. Room 515
11.05 -11.20 Coffee break (Room 510, 511, 512 & Common Area)
11.25 -12.20 Concurrent workshops	Session 2A Gemma Archer Teaching vowel sounds in Scottish ELT classrooms: problems & solutions. Room 513	Session 2B Marieke Van der Meer Coaching Chinese graduate students on word stress in English. Room 515
12.25 – 13.20 Concurrent workshops	Session 3A Amanda Avison Homework ideas for practising and improving pronunciation outside class. Room 513	Session 3B Kristýna Červinková Poesová & Radek Skarnitzl Schwa-tegration: vowel reduction at the heart of pronunciation teaching. Room 515
13.20 -14.15 Lunch break and raffle (Room 510, 511, 512 & Common Area)
14.20 -14.50 Concurrent presentations	Session 4A Ewa Wanat Using rhythm to learn English connected speech. Room 513	Session 4B Jane Stuart-Smith & Eleanor Lawson Seeing Speech and Dynamic dialects – building vocal tract imaging resources for use in Phonetics and Language teaching. Room 515
14.55 – 15.50 Concurrent sessions	Session 5A (presentation) Colin Hamilton A Visual Pronunciation Coach: using technology to help students practice pronunciation independently. Room 513	Session 5B (workshop) Alison McGregor Tips and tricks for integrating intonation skill development into classroom activities. Room 515
15.55 -16.10 Coffee break (Room 510 & Common Area)
16.15 – 17.00 Closing plenary: Sadie Ryan GH 514
17.00 -17.05 Thanks, Closing remarks, certificates GH 514		