

A journey through pronunciation and emotions. Next stop: 'maɪndfəl 'stʊ:dənts

Register:

<https://www.iatefl.org/events/187>

In order to communicate effectively, we must be able to grasp the other person's affective and cognitive states. As for the teaching of English pronunciation and the emotional ties between language and culture, I would like to present some meaningful activities which encompass empathy, self-confidence and will take participants on a journey from the mind to the heart.

Carol Gonçalves has been working at SBCI since 2007. She holds a BA in Languages (UFRJ) and a postgraduate degree in English Language Teaching (UFMG). She is the coordinator of BRAZ-TESOL Pronunciation SIG and member of Rio Chapter Advisory Board. Her main interests are Phonology, World Englishes and Materials writing for the classroom.

<https://pronsig.iatefl.org>